

Branch of Mme. Demorest Emporium of Fashion, 838 Broad way, New York, at the Emporium of Fashion, Abbeville, S. C.

We received this evening, 18th November, plain and elegantly trimmed patterns, of all the latest and most desirable styles, for ladies' and children's dress, for November and December, combining novelty, artistic beauty, practical utility, fashionable elegance, accuracy and perfect taste.

The ladies are invited to examine these new patterns as they are entirely new in designs. Respectfully,

THE HINKLEY FAMILY

KNITTING MACHINE!

THE introduction of this great labor saving instrument, we are sure, needs no excuse. The Sewing Machine is slowly but surely becoming necessary to the family circle as any other earthly possession, and the time will come when the head of a family who does not furnish when able, that eye pointed needle, will be sent to the Lunatic Asylum. Who would demand that his wife or daughter should stitch, stitch, all the live long day, when there is an instrument that does the same work in an hour? In eight hours' work even saved! What to do with them? My people will get lazy, says one. When people have nothing to do they go to something wrong, says another. Is that a fact? We do not believe that a well-directed mind will degenerate under ordinary influences. Bestow one of the hours upon the garden and improve the health; if not the complexion; save one for attention to children, ducks, turkeys, &c.; add a pet pig to that lot; exhibit them at the next Fair; let one be spent upon the actual that furnishes you its supply of milk and butter; include a few sheep, they will repay your kindness with great worth of wool. But that is accompanied by what—a disagreeable necessity? Knit, knit, knit! Screw up your eye, and count the stitches. Count the rows! The baby cries, and you forget to count again. Ah, no, if I was only through this knitting how happy would I be. Cross and sour until the knitting is over. Fond memory, and every piece of bright, wire keeps up the fretful state until the darning epidemic comes on and if you do not darn then you must be good. How to prevent all this? We will tell you in a few words. BUY A HINKLEY FAMILY KNITTER. Give it an hour. 'Twill knit everything that ever has been knit, and when you get acquainted it will knit as many articles as the machine and you will see that it can perform its promise. Devote the remaining hour to moral and mental instruction. Tear out the 'stars' and put in a piece from the mittens, and if you do not reign in the bosom of your family and on the soles of their feet, 'twill never rain again. Call and see the machine in operation on Sale Day in December at Abbeville Court House.
